

Kaufmann's--- The Goal of All Women Who Know and Want

GOOD GLOVES

Kaufmann's is an international glove store. The selection of the best is our aim. Having no favorites, we are free to select the best from France, from England, from America. Those Gloves are here-time-tried and true; gloves that will fit, wear and satisfy. Our expert fitters will help you make the right selection, or if vou have a preference, to fill it

Let Us Show You These Specials: FOR WALKING

A heavy Cape Glove, in tan, that will put a finish to $1.00 your jaunty suit ......

EVENING GLOVES

Ask for the Checo-S2.38 length, with pear Cleo-S2.38 Ask for the Checo elbowpatra button ......

black .....

FOR MISSES-A big variety of stylish Kid Gloves to match her faunty outfit

Social and Personal

the debutante daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Oppenhimer. The house was decorated entirely in yellow and white flowers, and the drawing-room, where the receiving party stood, was arranged with Southern smilax and tall arranged with Southern smilax and tall arranged with Southern smilax and tall arranged with Southern smilax and dall arranged with Southern smilax and dall arranged with Southern smilax and tall arranged with Southern smilax and tall arranged with Southern smilax and dall arranged with Southern smilax and dall arranged with Southern smilax and dall arranged with Southern smilax and tall arranged of Miss Elizabeth Dearborn and Warner Winston Croxton was selemntated at the home of the brides parents, and Mrs. Alexander R. Dearborn, on South Sixteenth Avenue, The house was prettily decorated for the schelar party at Murphy's Hotel, Grace Street entrance, on Thursday at 4 o'clock. Tables can be reserved for auction bridge, five hundred and bridge. To Address Auxiliaries.

rimmed in iridescent bands. The tended by the immediate success of honor wore a French gown of soft white satin trimmed in eeru ace, and embroidered in pearis, and pink and white, were in all of the Miss Harriet Gunn, another bud of apartments, in addition to handsome growing plants. liss Harriet Gunn, another bud of apartments, in addition to handsome be season, who was also in the receiving line, wore white charmeuse rimmed in tuile and pink chiffon ter, Miss Augusta Dearborn, who was oses, and finished with old bus bows. In white, and the best man was Philip The tea table in the dining-room vas set with a big basket of yellow. The bride wore a follet of white charmaguse with a veil, and her flowcirryanthemums tied with yellow gauze ribbon, and autumn leaves were banked on the mantels everywhere. Mrs. Walter Austin Creath, assisted by Miss Mary Nicholas Ainslie, served punch in the library, which was also decorated in chrysanthemums, yellow shaded lights and autumn leaves. About seventy-five guests were enter.

out seventy-five guests were enter-

Debutante inntra

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND The Danlop Mills Richmond Va.

> Good Upright Piano

Stool and Scarf included Easy terms if desired. Call or write for complete list of bargains in "used" and rebuilt instruments.

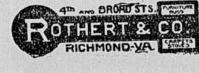

The Craft Piano Co.

Crafts Hall, Broad, at Second Street. Richmond, Va.

SCHOOL SHOES FOR HOYS AND GIRLS $1.50 to $3.00.
Every Pair Guaranteed.

Gas Ranges Reduced 10%

OUR SPECIAL $1 GLOVE La Favorite two-clasp $1.00 Glace Kid, in all colors..

> FOR AFTERNOON WEAR We show a dainty Pique Glove, in two-tone, with threerow silk crocheted backs; white, champagne, tan and $1.75

FOR CHILDREN-KNITTED GLOVES. Good looking and durable. Kid Gloves, with fur tops, at 59c.

FOR THE MOTORIST-Gauntlets of every description-at all Corner Fourth and Brond Streets.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Kennon White Rodwell and Swift Rodwell, Messre. J. B. and W. E. Rodwell, Messre. J. B. and W. E. Rodwell, tations for mums

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson and decorations were in chrysantheChalmers have sent out invitations for muns.

Miss Frances Byrd Alvey, of the Mrs. G. L. White, of Portsmuns.

Miss Frances Byrd Alvey, of the Mrs. Alvey,

A wedding breakfast was served, the table having the bride's cake for a central ornamentation. It was Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson enter-circle were pink orchids.

Mrs. and Mrs. Croxton left in a pri-fantes last evening at her home in vate car for Key West, Fla., fr Ginter Park. It was a "rook" parry which point they will sail for Cuba. from At the conclusion of their wedding ourney they will make their home in

> Among the out-of-town guests for Palmyra. Among the out-of-town guests for hearings and the wedding were Miss Augusta Paton, of Baltimore, aunt of the bride;
> Mr. and Mrs. E. Sco frs. Anne Lewis Croxton, of Richmond, pother of the groom, and his two prothers, Lewis Croxton, of El Paso, lexas, and Philip Croxton, of New Miss Ethel Howard, of the guest of Mrs.

Mrs. Croxton has several times visited here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Chapin, of 522 Floyd Avenue.

Miller Entertains.

One of the prettiest functions of the fail season was an informal tea given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Clifton on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Clifton M. Miller, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Allan Shepherd, a bride of last month. The affair took place in Mrs. Miller's home, on West Grace Street, and decorations were in hig bowls of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow shaded candles. The tea table was arranged with a basket of yellow chrysanthemums caught with tulle, and Mrs. W. G. Miller, who wore a gown of black satin and lace, poured tea. Miss Belle Perkins, who was gowned in flame-colored charmeuse, presided at the punch bowl.

the punch bowl.

Mrs. Miller, wearing an imported gown of gold-colored brocade, with a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley, received with the guest of honor in the front drawing-room. Mrs. Shepherd's gown was a lovely affair of hand-painted chiffon finished with fur bands, and she were a bouquet of purple orchids. Assisting Mrs. Miller in doing the honors of the afternoon were Mrs. William Russell Jones, Mrs. Greer Mrs. William Russell Jones, Mrs. Greer Baughman, Mrs. Stanley Dorsey Syd-nor, Misses Sarah Oppenhimer and Harriet Gunn

Harriet Gunn.
Important Meeting.
Chesterfield Juniors, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold their regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the parlor of the Bainbridge Street Baptist Church, South Richmond, Parents are invited.

pastor of Leigh Street Baptist Church, officiating. The parlors of the Scott home were prettily decorated in ferns, palms and lighted tapers and an improvised altar of palms, white flowers and cathedral candles was arranged at one end of the front room. The bride were a bandsome going away gown of wore a bandsome going away gown of wore a handsome going-away gown of blue cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Sowell have gone North for their wedding trip and on their return will be at home, at 407 North Twenty-third Street.

Opening Dance.
Invitations have been issued for the openeing dance of the season given by L. R. Travers, former president of the Southern German Club, and W. H. Kelley. The dance this afternoon at 5 o'clock, which will take place in the ballroom of the Masonic Temple, is the first of a series of delightful afternoon hops that will be given throughout the winter, and about 150 guests will be present. North Carolina Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in Macon, N. C., Methodist Church, when Miss Mary Louise Rodwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rodwell, became the bride of Thomas Holt Rowan, of Hamlet, N. C. The church was decorated in palms, forms and flowers, and the ceremony was performed under an the ceremony was performed under an arch entwined with smilax and lighted with candles. From the centre of the arch was suspended a large wedding bell. "The Hour That Gave Me You" was rendered by Miss Alice Britton Rodwell, sister of the bride, and the "Lohengrin" Wedding March was played by Miss Penchen White converse the "Lohengrin" Wedding March was played by Miss Penelope White, cousin of the bride, of Portsmouth, as the bridal party entered the church. The ushers were: Messrs. W. E. and J. P. Rodwell, brothers of the bride; J. P. O'Brien and M. W. Nicholson. Misses Garnette Crocker, Lettie Rowan, sister of the groom; Sarah Myrick and Ellie Nicholson were the bridesmaids. They were pink crepe de chine, and carried white roses. Miss Joyce Coleman was maid of honor, and wore pink arried white roses. Miss Joyce Cole-man was maid of honor, and wore pink charmeuse with an overdress of lace, and carried pink roses. The matron of honor was Mrs. F. M. Drake, sister of the bride. She wore a lovely gown of pink crepe meteor, and carried pink roses. Little Miss Elizabeth Rodwell, ressed in hand-embroidered mull, vith a broad pink sash, and carrying basket of pink roses, preceded the ride as flower girl. Caswell Drake ephew of the bride, carried the ring white rose.

The bride's gown was of white char meuse, with real lace and pearl trimnings. Her long veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap, and was caught with orange blossoms. She entered on the arm of her father, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, H. M. Rowan, of Florence, S. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J.
C. Rowan, of Camden, S. C., assisted by Rev. D. N. Cavinese, of Warrenton, Verdict of Architectural

Werdict of Architectural

Werdict of Architectural

Immediately following, a reception was given at the home of the bride to the bridal party and intimate friends of the family. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rodwell, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coleman. The bride and groom left for an extended trip North.

Among the out-of-town guests at Miss Helen Rose gave a lovely tea of Mrs. Alexander Sands, which will at her home, 230 West Grace Street. In honor of Miss Sarah Oppenhimer. Miss Marie Stuart Sands, who is a honor of Miss Sarah Oppenhimer. Miss Marie Stuart Sands, who is a Mrs. W. T. Oppenhimer. The hond of the season.

Bishop St. George Tucker, of Japan, will make an address before the members of all the Junior Auxiliaries of Richmond to-merrow afternoon at 5 o'clock in All Saints' Episcopal Church.

100 East Franklin Street.

Mr and Mrs Isane Hutzler and their daughter, Mrs. J. Harry Myers, of Eal-timore, are registered at Murphy's

Miss Julia Omohundro, of 2003 Floyd Avenue, is spending some time at

Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott Martin, of Farmville, are spending a week with Miss Ethel Howard, of this city, has been the guest of Mrs. M. C. Barnes, in Willimasburg for several weeks.

Mrs. B. C. Grav, who spent a few days in Richmond this week, has returned to her home in Newport News.

Mrs. W. W. Tunis of this city, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs M. M. Tunis, at their home in Norfolk.

Mrs. W. P. Clark and Mrs. C. H. Davis have returned to Williamsburg. after a short visit to this city.

Miss Mabel Humphrey, who has been visiting the Misses Mitchell, in New-port News, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Eliza Montgomery has returned

How Anyone Can Banish Hair or Fuzz

(Modes of To-day.) Bainbridge Street Baptist Church, South Richmond. Parents are invited.

Pretty Home Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Annie Lee Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Scott, and Stuart Lee Sowell, also of Richmond was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, 407 North Twenty-third Street, on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, Rev. John J. Wicker, paster of Leigh Street Baptist Church, colliciating. The parlors of the Scott home were prettily decorated in ferns, more satisfactory when you get the delatone in an original package.-Ad-

> Pillsbury's Best Flour, 37c bag; Fresh Country Eggs, dozen .. 30c

> > S. Ullman's Son 1820-1822 East Main Street, 506 East Marshall Street.

Men's Section, First Floor

To-Day a Special Sale of Men's Fixings

warm, long-wearing kind, at $1.08. Men's $1.50 Cont Sweaters, special

Men's $1.00 Sweater Coats to be Men's $1.50 English Walking

Gloves, $1.29. Men's $1.25 Silk Lined Mocha

Men's $1.25 Gray Silk Lined Gray Wool Underwear, as good as you usually get at a much higher price, only $1.00.

Half Wool Underwear, very warm and durable; sold at some stores for $1.00, here only 75c.

Gray Wool Double-Breasted and Double Back Undervests, a special value at $1.00.

Flannelette Pajamas, with silk frogs, cut full and warm; as good as some sold at $1.50, special ose. $1.25 White and Pancy Madras Pajamas, with silk frogs, spe

Flannelette Night Robes, full cut

25c All Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, beautiful quality, special 17c. Men's All Pure Linen Hemstliched Initial Handkerchiefs, 1-2 dozen from A to Z; special value at, each 12 1-2c. Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, full and best values in Richmond; spe-cial 5c.

Men's $1.50 Pinest Quality Shirts.

Men's $1.00 Percale Shirts, best of Men's 75c Percale Shirts, cut full colors and well made, special

PLANS FOR EMBASSY REJECTED BY KAISER

Commission.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. MPEROR WILLIAM was entirely justified in overriding the verdict of the architectural commission at Berlin, and in rejecting the design for the new German embassy at Washington, to which it had awarded the first prize in an open competition. For anything more inappropriate to Washington, or more out of keeping with the environment which it would have had there, than the plans selected by the committee, it is impossible to conceive. There are some very stately buildings in the national capital of the United States, and to these the emassy which would have been erected the Kaiser intervened, would have presented a sorry contrast. Dr. von line, the imperial architect, who did not compete for the prize, but who drew up on his own account plans which have since been accepted by the Emperor, spent some time at Washington three years ago, and is thoroughly acquainted with the appearance and the requirements of the city, of none of which either the winner of the prize, or the members of the architectural commission constituting the jury, had the slightest conception

If the Emperor intervened, it was for the purpose of avoiding what took place at St. Petersburg. When it was decided to build a German embassy on the banks of the Neva, a competition was opened at Berlin, just as for the embassy building at Washington, and the first prize was awarded to an arch! tect who was as ignorant of conditions in the Muscovite capital as the jury The marriage of Mrs. Katherine Sher-wood and David Q. Bridges will be intelly celebrated this morning at 11 Sclock in the Church of the Covenant. Only members of the family will be making the award. been that the new German embassy at St. Petersburg is the laughling-stock Miss Lora Crump has returned to Richmond, after spending some time and suggests a manufacture of a mu-Richmond, after spending some time in New York City.

Mrs. F. G. Bird, of England, will arrive to-day, to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Whitlock, at 100 East Franklin Street.

MILLINERY—Women's and suggests a mausoleum, or a museum for ponderous statuary, rather than a palace meant for human habitation. In one word, it is what is known as the modern Garmanic type of architecture, that is to say, a twentieth controlled to the companies of the exclaimed:

"Have you forgotten our promise to each other? I died on Tuesday morning at 4. I have been permitted to thus appear, to assure you that the they applied for entrance at Trinity, since there is a chapter of the Kappa Alpha fraternity here, and the Trinity authorities could see in ground for denying them entrance.

MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Misses' Outer Apparel.

MicDougall Kitchen Cabinets

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

As soon as ever the American people have the opportunity of seeing the pictures of the embassy building for Washington, which Emperor William rejected, and of comparing it with the seen and that you will die in your sixty-eighth year."

suffered to inform you that you will stating that every one of them was of excellent character, and that their only offense had been a technical one.

wives, constructive art. Lidy Beresford continued: "I begged him for some sign or proof, so that when the morring came I might be having preserved their beautiful city of Washington from a monumental of my imagination. He therefore the plantom of my imagination. He therefore the plantom of my imagination. rejected, and of comparing it with the of Washington from a monumental of my imagination. He thereupon laid of Washington from a monumental eyespre.

The Earl of Clanwilliam, whose valuable collection of old silver and other art treasures of his ancestral home at Up Park, near Petersfield, in Hampshire, is now on exhibition in New York with a view to its sale, is a solder by profession, and now makes his home with his wife and his two little girls at Gill Hall, his place at Dromore, in County Down. He was A. D. C. to the Gurzon in India, and was badly wounded in the Boer War. He is head of the ancient Irish house of Meade, originally called Meagh, the discovery being placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, which was as cold as marble, on my wrist, and where his fingers touched it, the sinews shrank up, and the nerves with it. 'Now,' said he, that wrist.''

After Lady Beresford's death, which occurred precisely as had been predisted, in the revision and the Archbishop of Dublin, until the heavy sixty-eighth year, her eliest son and the Archbishop of Dublin, until the nerves withered and the shews shrunk, the discovery being placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal place and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal place and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal place and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, Archbishop William King of Dublin, and the formal placed on written record by both men, namely, of Meade, originally called Meagh.

Miach and Myagh, some of them being on record as having held office as Mayor of Cork in the reign of Henry

Mayor of Cork in the reign of Henry

Michola, Lady Beresford, lies buried in Italian waters. Covers were into for fifty persons. The decorations consisted of an artistic floral piece representing the battleship Wyoming and interwoven Italian and American count Clanwilliam, and afterwards to that of Earl of Clanwilliam.

present Lord Clanwilliam owes his succession to the family honors to the death of his elier brother, who was flag lieutenant to Admiral Sir George Tryon at the time of the collision between the battleships Camperdown and Victoria on the coast of Syria, in 1893, when the admiral and 800 officers and men lost their lives. The earl's next heir is als brother, Captain the Hon. Herbert Meads, of the royal mays, While Lord Clanwilliam has found it necessary to sell the valuable collection of seventeenth and eighteenth century plate at Up Park, and also many of its art treasures, before disposing of the place to the fifth Lord Winterton's brother, Colonel the Hon-Keith Turnour-Featherstonbaugh, he will eventually be a very rich man, he is next heir to the late Miss Featherstonhaugh's extensive Sussex property, of which Colonel Turnour-Featherstonhaugh is tenant for life. Gill Hall, where the earl makes his home, came into the family through the marriage of the first earl with the only daughter and heiress of Robert Hawkins McGill, one of the territorial magnates of County Down. It is the scene of the much-discussed supernatural appearance of Lord Tyrono to Nichola, Lady Beresford. It seems that she had a romantic affection for the Lord Tyrone of her day; and, filled with doubts as to the value of their religious opinions, they made a solomn promise to one another that whosver of the two died first, should, if per-

Fifteen years later she came down one morning to breakfast at Gill Hall where she was staying on a visit, looking very much agitated, and with a black ribbon tied round her wrist, Her husband, Sir Tristram Beresford, asked her how she had hurt herself, whoreupon she carnestly entreated him not to inquire as to the cause of her wearing it, saying: "You will never see me without it again." Then she eagerly and anxiously asked whether any letters had arrived, and, on being questioned by those at the breakfast table, remarked that she expected to hear of Lord Tyrone's death, which she declared had taken place on the preceding Tuesday, Her husband laughed. But in the afternoon a letter was brought in, stating that Lord Tyrone had died on Tuesday morning. To the amazement of Sir Tristram his wife, instead of manifesting grief showed feelings of relief, and exclaim ed: "I can now give you a most satisfactory piece of intelligence. I am new about to become a mother. It will be a boy, and an heir to your estate." (She had been murried at the time for eight years, without having any children.) The son was born within a year, and, in course of time, inherited not only the Beresford title and estates, but, marrying Tyrone's only child and helross of all the Le Pour property, became the an-cestress of the Marquis of Waterford, of Admiral Lord Charles, of Lord Marcus Beresford, and of the entire Beres ford house. Nichola, Lady Beresford, on her deathbed, many years after this ghostly restated many years after this gnostly systation at Gill Hall, re-realed to her juniors and six seniors at the South eldest son, and to Archbishop William Carolina college, were suspended for King, of Dublin, her spiritual adviser Joining a fraternity, Kappa Alpha, re-King, of Dublin, her spiritual adviser and most intimate friend, the reason for her wearing the black ribbon on the wrist. She declared that on the night preceding the arrival of the announcement of the death of the last of the Le Poer Earls of Tyrone, he had appeared to her, sitting by the side or her bed. On her screaming with fright, he exclaimed:

of ancient Teutonic one by which we can be saved. I am

VI. and Heary VII. The first Meade is the Cathedral of St. Patrick, at Dubto be ennobled was Attorney-General lin; but her ghest has its abode at quis Di San Giulano, Minister of Forof James II., and it was his son who Curraghmore, the ancestral home of was advanced to the rank, first of Visseventeenth century costume, and with the black ribbon on her west, she John W. Riddle, former United States

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Ayer's Hair Vigor is composed of sulphur, glycerin, quinin, sodium chlorid, capsicum, sage, alcohol, water, perfume. A hair tonic. Promptly checks falling hair. Does not color the hair. J. C. Arer Co., Lowell, Mass.

HAMMOND "Flowers of Guaranteed

> Freshness." Tel. Madison 630.

SHAFT IN HONOR

Daughters Join With Monument Association in Laying

Corner-Stone.

CONVENTION ENDS TO-DAY Election of Officers and Selection of Next Meeting Place on Program.

Daughters of the Confederacy suspended their sessions long enough to-day to join with the Beauregard Monumen Association and business interests of

New Orleans in ceremonies attending laying a corner-stone for a monument to General P. G. T. Beauregard. Public schools were dismissed at noon, and in response to a proclamation of Acting Mayor Rich, business in many parts of the city was partially suspended for an hour, beginning at 2 o'clock.

The movement to creet this monument was started twenty years ago and to-day it was announced funds for completion of the work had been subscribed. The monument will stand in City Park, and the equestrian statue of General Beauregard now is being cast. Routine matters occupied the attention of Daughters during the remainder of the day. An effort was made to hurry through the long reports as rap-of the day. An effort was made to hurry through the long reports as rapldly as possible, as the convention is tehind in its work, and to-morrow's program will be largely taken up with the election of efficers and probable selection of the next meeting place.

An echo of the suffragist incident again was heard to-day, when Mrs. C. A. Cantrell, of Kentucky, turned in her delegate's badge and announced to friends that she would remain at the convention only as a visitor. Mrs. Cantrell moved on Wednerday that the Daughters accept the greetings of a suffragist convention meeting here. The motion was tabled after a rathe spirited debate. On the following day Mrs. Cantrell asked for an extension of time for the reading of a repor The matter was put to a vote and the time was not granted.

It is understood that the committee appointed to select a design for the monument at Shiloh is not satisfied with any design submitted, and that new bids will be required. This committee will report to-morrow, and, un-less sentiment expressed in committee meetings to-day is changed, the award

SUSPENDED MEN

Students Who Joined Fraternity at Wofford Received by Durham School.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., November 14.—Trin-ity received ten new students this week Durham, N. C., November 14.—Trinity received ten new students this week from Wofford College, of Spartanburg, S. C. These men, four of whom were juniors and sty sentence of the control o eign Affairs; Vice-Admiral Millo, Min-ister of Marines; Admiral Direval and The late earl was a particular favorits of Queen Victoria, who bestowed upon him many marks of her good will. He was a veteran of the Crimean War, and died as admiral of the fiet. The present Lord Claustillan of was a veteran of the fiet. The present Lord Claustillan over the company.)

the black ribbon on her weist, she makes an apparition on the eve of the death of any member of the house of the American battleships, members of the American embassy staff, and various American residents in Rome.

Ambassador Page was warmly apparent to the company.) Ambassador Page was warmly at plauded when he rose to address the diners. He sold he was sure he was expressing the sentiments of all thos present when he welcomed Rear-Admira) Badger and the other officers of the Atlantic fleet to Rome. The entire company joined the ambassador in drinking a toast to King Victor Emmanuel and President Wilson Alfonzo Calderozzo, former musician on the battleship Utah, to-day was

CAM exonerated of any charge of dishonesty in connection with his disappearance intrusted with about $3,000 to arrange an excursion for the American bluejackets. Calderozzo's explanation that he had been unavoidably delayed was accepted and he was later admitted to the papal audience, with twenty-eight blue-pal audience, with twenty-eight blue-lackets from the battleship Utah, and received with them the apostolic ben-several days ago, after he had been

A special audience is to be given by the Pope to-morrow to Rear Admirals Charles J. Badger and Cameron M. Winslow and the other officers of the American fleet,

All the sailors of the fleet, who ar now dispersed over different parts of linly on excursions, will gather at the same time and be given an audience in the adjoining halls

Warmly Welcomed in Naples. Naples, November 14 - Sailors from the American battleships Arkansas, Florida and Wyoming to-day visited the San Martine Museum and later

Those Articles

OF BEAUREGARD which come from the Schwarzschild Store have an added appreciation.

Their goods are known for their high quality and good taste. Schwarzschild Bros.

Richmond's Leading Jewelers,

Second and Broad Streets.

lace of Naples and the surrounding country. The Neapolitans admired the good behavior of the biuejackets.
A Dutch warship arrived here to day, and the commander exchanged visits with the American officers, while the sailors from the American fleet fraternized with their Dutch followers of the

JAY TO SUCCEED WHEELER

Slated for Appointment as Secretary to Embassy at Rome. Washington, Nevember 11.—Peter A.

The Comet Heater Self Feeder

More sold than any other heater in Richmond. Prices, $18.50 and $22.50. Set up FREE Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corp.

THE REINACH CO., Inc.

Women's New Suits at Special

107 E. BROAD STREET.

President Few a letter recommending that Trinity take in these young men, and Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges stating that every one of them was of make sweet tempered houses

> JURGENS Adams and Broad.

Children's School $1 ALBERT STEIN

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

Cor. 5th and Broad Sts.

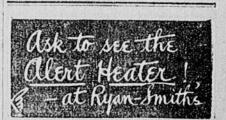

Sydnor & Hundley showing the largest collection of HANDSOME FURNITURE this season they have ever exhibited.

GIFT PIECES A SPECIALTY. BRACELETS,

CAMEO BROOCHES. Smith & Webster 805 East Main.

The House of Fashion Bernard, Frances & Co., Broad and Fifth Streets